

As Your Voice Fades

Emery

As Your Voice Fades Emery

Tune Half step down

All F, F#, A are played as a power chords up one octave(played at 9, 10 and 12 on the A string)

Em also played at 7th fret, C and D are played as barre chords, but work fine as open chords

Am C
Somebody please tell me

Em D C
What am I suppose to do?

A2* C
You ve died and I m here

Em D C
Thinking that I hear your voice

A2 C
But it s somebody else

A2
It s always somebody else

Interlude*

F#, F, E, D, E, C

Em
Why did you die?

D C
Don t leave me please

Em D C
I beg you God tonight bring me peace

Em
I ll never sleep without

D C Em
The dreams of you alive here with me

C D Em
Alive here with me

Bridge

D (passing) F#, A, F, *(alternate chords)

F, E power chords played back and forth C comes
The brightness left your eyes
As I held your face
Don t tell me it s the right time

And your last words will sustain me

C D

Until my end

C D

Until I see you again

Em D C X4

Em D C

Your words (your life) evade me (but a moment)

C Em
I ll wait to (I ll cling to) remember you (forever)

D C (quick)

And what you have (your words) meant to me (on my blood)

C Em, C, D

Could never be forgotten

F, F#, A, F#, *(alternate chords)

Em C
The chains (why) of death (today)

D Em
Are falling (away), but my heart still beats

C D
It longs for (why) the day (did you die)

F# F A F# F F# A F
When we will be as one, one, one

F#, F, D, A