

Crumbling
Emery

Capo 1 in key of C mimics Emery s usual tuning. Intro and Bridge may be off.

Intro: F (fingerpick) Am F Bm7

Verse 1:

Am C
I fell in love with the world, she gave me everything that I deserved
Dm F G
(I had) all that I wanted and more right in my hands
E
(but some things just never last)
Am C
She ran away with the sun (I guess), the moon and the stars must have followed along
Dm F G
Cause I m here in the cold and the dark until she returns
E
(deny because the truth really hurts)

Chorus:

F Am F
The universe is crumbling tonight, and I m not sure if we can survive
F Dm E
You left me here with nothing at all, with my back against the wall

Verse 2: (same chords as verse 1)

The church and the priests they all gather around
They tie up my hands but they won t hear me out
No, I m not the one, I m not the one to blame (murder me just the same)
She hung her promises (I took the bait)
She sold us out (Just for fortune and fame)
No, she s not the one, she s not the one to save
(the fool that fell into her game)

Chorus 2: same but end with

Bridge:

F
So is this what it takes to seperate the craving from the purpose
Am

Measured by success and not the motives of the heart

F

And we are crushed beneath the weight of all the pressure

E

that is put on our shoulders but

C

We could be honest, confess our weakness

D

A

E

Am

C

E

Give up our innocence for the blame, we could be saved
