(INTRO)

Bm A/C# G/D

Bm A/C# G/D

One and three, you are here (to tell me we can't do this)

Bm

To tell me we can't do this

A/C#

G/D

(Three for three, I'll disagree.)

Bm A G

Any more...

Bm A G

Your hair and face against the mirror

Bm A

As I take the steps

G

To save what's left of me

Bm A G

Someone's out when it's over

Bm A G

People steal from you

Bm A G

They take anything they choose

Em D A

It's good to see you (I missed you last night)

Em D A

That's such a lovely color (It goes with your eyes)

Em D A

Before we fall asleep (I just wanted to say)

Em D A

This all seems so easy, but there's choices to make

G

Can't decide

A

Then look at the faces (candlelight)

Em

We re burning the pages (But ask us why)

Bm

And hurting ourselves with this false start

G

(Resign yourself) and we pretend

A

It simply gets easier

Em

But does it get easier

C

When we have these mornings where we can t say goodbye?

D Em

F#

G

I wanted to mean everything to you

D Em

G

But this isn t right

D Em

F#

G

You keep coming back disassembled and

D Em

G

I keep losing this fight.

Bm A/C# G/D

I won t (I won t)

Bm A/C# G/D

An - swer (Answer)

Bm A

G

Dancing on the starlight glow

Bm A

G

No one in the city knows

Bm A

G

Confidence can take you

Bm

Nerves try to shake you

A

G

Bm A G

From going all the way

Bm A

G

It s not that far

Em

D

A

It s good to see you, I missed you last night

Em

D

A

That s such a lovely color, it goes with your eyes

Em D

A

Before we fall asleep, I just wanted to say

Em D

A

This all seems so easy -- there s choices to make.

G

A

We watch the tide roll in (with cold air and coffee cakes)

Em

Holding our words at lips, (stopping the sounds they make)

Bm

We know the way to go we know each step to take (to be here)

G

These words with no replies

A

Stopping we s and starting I s

Em

This need is killing me

C

And taking me over

D Em F# G

I wanted to mean everything to you

D Em G

But this isn t right

D Em F# G

You keep coming back disassembled and

D Em G

I keep losing this fight
