

Asus2 E B
 Spent my nights just asking why
 F5
 Would God let me become like this.

Asus2 E B

Was it a joke from the start?

F5

Was I supposed to laugh more at it?

Asus2 E B

And everyone s quoting their teachers and preachers

F5

but their words make me feel so alone.

Asus2 E~ B~

No one ever says that they ve had those thoughts

F5

in the middle of the night.

Asus2~ E~ B~

No one ever admits that they wanted to take their life.

Chorus

E

The drink slips down my throat

G#m

and the burn cures nice and slow.

F5

B

All the worst parts I wouldn t want you to see

The only parts left of me

Now, here I am

C#m

Just a kid without a better plan.

Asus2

F5

But it s the simple thoughts that haunt me the most.

B

I never got to see the west coast.

Asus2, E, Asus2, E, B

Asus2, E, Asus2, E, B

C#m

But it s the life I dreamed I have

C

The love I find in my grasp

B

F5

The words I could share with someone.

C#m

Those thoughts keep the breath in my lungs

C

That tomorrow my hope will become

B

F5

fulfilled by a love that can t be undone.

Asus2 E B

And save a wretch like me.

Chorus

E

So if the drink slips down your throat

G#m

and the burn cures nice and slow.

F5

B

All the worst parts you wouldn't want me to see.

E

The same parts, I have in me

C#m

Now, scares me too we are both this way.

Asus2

I feel just like you do.

B

But when you're by yourself you should know

One day we got to see the west coast.
