

You're Not Right For Me
Emilia Mitiku

You're Not Right For Me by Emilia Mitiku
(Capo on 3rd) Bb

C
You're right,

Em
And There is no reason why,
F Em A
I shouldn't stay here tonight.

F
Your Arms,
Em C Am
Are reaching to hold me now,
F Am G
And to fall, would be so easy.

C Em
Cause your good, maybe too good for me.
F Em A
I would take all you'd give, and then I'd leave.
F Em (C) Am
Don't want to start, what I know will end,
F Am G
With us both, bitter and, sorry
F Goodbye.

Em A
Will be easier to say,
F Em A
tonight before the daylight breaks,
Dm Am Dm A
Then I'd be tempted to lie, and pretend everything is right
F G C
When you're, not right, for me.

C
You're right,
Em
in every possible way
F Em A
So I'd fight, every urge I have to say
F Em (C) Am
What my heart, is telling me now to do,
F Am G
Cause we'd both be bitter and sorry,

F Em A F
Goodbye, will be easier to say, tonight
Em A
Before the daylight breaks,
Dm Am Dm A
Then I d be tempted to lie, and pretend everything is right
F C G
When you re, not right, for me.

End...

This is the first song that I have added chords to and although most of it sounds right, I am aware that some of it might be slightly out but I still enjoyed playing this song and I hope that you do too. I play a basic finger pick and it sounds ok.
