

Youre Not Right For Me
Emilia Mitiku

You're Not Right For Me by Emilia Mitiku
(Capo on 3rd) Bb

C#
You re right,
Fm
And There is no reason why,
F# Fm Bb
I shouldn t stay here tonight.

F#
Your Arms,
Fm C# Bbm
Are reaching to hold me now,
F# Bbm G#
And to fall, would be so easy.

C# Fm
Cause your good, maybe too good for me.
F# Fm Bb
I would take all you d give, and then I d leave.
F# Fm (C#) Bbm
Don t want to start, what I know will end,
F# Bbm G#
With us both, bitter and, sorry
F#
Goodbye.
Fm Bb
Will be easier to say,
F# Fm Bb
tonight before the daylight breaks,
Ebm Bbm Ebm Bb
Then I d be tempted to lie, and pretend everything is right
F# G# C#
When you re, not right, for me.

C#
You re right,
Fm
in every possible way
F# Fm Bb
So I d fight, every urge I have to say
F# Fm (C#) Bbm
What my heart, is telling me now to do,
F# Bbm G#
Cause we d both be bitter and sorry,

F#	Fm	Bb	F#
Goodbye, will be easier to say, tonight
Fm	Bb
Before the daylight breaks,
Ebm	Bbm	Ebm	Bb
Then I d be tempted to lie, and pretend everything is right
F#	C#	G#
When you re, not right, for me.

End...

This is the first song that I have added chords to and although most of it sounds right, I am aware that some of it might be slightly out but I still enjoyed playing this song and I hope that you do too. I play a basic finger pick and it sounds ok.
