

You're Not Right For Me
Emilia Mitiku

You're Not Right For Me by Emilia Mitiku
(Capo on 3rd) Bb

D
You're right,
F#m
And There is no reason why,
G F#m B
I shouldn't stay here tonight.

G
Your Arms,
F#m D Bm
Are reaching to hold me now,
G Bm A
And to fall, would be so easy.

D F#m
Cause your good, maybe too good for me.
G F#m B
I would take all you'd give, and then I'd leave.

G F#m (D) Bm
Don't want to start, what I know will end,
G Bm A
With us both, bitter and, sorry
G
Goodbye.

F#m B
Will be easier to say,
G F#m B
tonight before the daylight breaks,
Em Bm Em B
Then I'd be tempted to lie, and pretend everything is right
G A D
When you're, not right, for me.

D
You're right,
F#m
in every possible way
G F#m B
So I'd fight, every urge I have to say
G F#m (D) Bm
What my heart, is telling me now to do,
G Bm A
Cause we'd both be bitter and sorry,

G F#m B G
Goodbye, will be easier to say, tonight
F#m B
Before the daylight breaks,
Em Bm Em B
Then I d be tempted to lie, and pretend everything is right
G D A
When you re, not right, for me.

End...

This is the first song that I have added chords to and although most of it sounds right, I am aware that some of it might be slightly out but I still enjoyed playing this song and I hope that you do too. I play a basic finger pick and it sounds ok.
