Emily's Army

Hellooo!

So I met Emily s Army just yesterday and they are the nicest guys ever. About 8 of us couldn t get into the gig because the venue had an 18+ rule and we had no ID on us, so Cole and Max stayed outside and played us some songs until it was time for them to go on stage. They are so lovely. If you ve never listened to them, check them out. Sorry about waffling on..

These are the chords used:
