

Hailies Song

Eminem

[Intro]

(Do Pattern from beginning to end)

G#m-E-F#-G#m G#m-B-Bb7-Eb

I can t sing it
I feel like singin
I wanna fuckin sing
Cuz I m happy
Yeah, I m happy
Ha Ha
I got my baby back
Yo, check it out

[Verse]

Some days I sit (sit), starin out the window
Watchin this world pass me by
Sometimes I think (think) there s nothin to live for (for)
I almost break down and cry

Sometimes I think I m crazy
I m crazy, oh so crazy
Why am I here, am I just wastin my time?

But then I see my baby
Suddenly I m not crazy
It all makes sense when I look into her eyes (Oh no)

[Chorus]

Sometimes it feels like the world s on my shoulders
Everyone s leanin on me
Cuz sometimes it feels like the world s almost over
But then she comes back to me

[Verse]

My baby girl (girl) (Hailie laughs) keeps gettin older (der)
I watch her grow up with pride
People make jokes (jokes), cuz they don t understand me (me)
They just don t see my real side

I act like shit don t phase me
Inside it drives me crazy
My insecurities could eat me alive

But then I see my baby
Suddenly I m not crazy
It all makes sense when I look into her eyes

Repeat Chorus

Yeah and if I could sing, I d keep singin this song to my daughter
If I could hit the notes, I d blow somethin as long as my father
To show her how I feel about her, how proud I am that I got er
God, I m a daddy, I m so glad that her mom didn t censored (abort her)

[Bridge]

Now you prob ly get this picture from my public persona
That I m a pistol-packin drug-addict who bags on his mama
But I wanna just take this time out to be perfectly honest
Cuz there s a lot of shit I keep bottled that hurts deep inside o ma soul
And just know that I grow colda the older I grow
This boulder on my shoulder that gets heavy and harda to hold
And this load is like the weight of the world
And I think my neck is breakin
Should I just give up
Or try to live up to these expectations?
Now look
I love my daughter more than life in itself
But I got a wife who s determined to make my life livin hell
But I handle it well, given the circumstances I m dealt
So many chances, man, it s too bad, coulda had someone else
But the years that I ve wasted are nothin to the tears that I ve tasted
So here s what I m facin : 3 felonies, 6 years of probation
I ve went to jail for this woman, I ve been to bat for this woman
I ve taken bats to people s backs, bent over backwards for this woman
Man, I shoulda seen it comin , what d I stick my penis up in?
Woulda ripped the pre-nup if I d seen what she was fuckin
But fuck it, it s over, there s no more reason to cry no more
I got my baby, baby the only lady that I adore, Hailie
So sayonara, try tomorra, nice to know ya
My baby s traveled back to the arms of her rightful owna
And suddenly it seems that my shoulder blades have just shifted
It s like the greatest gift you can get
The weight has been lifted

[Chorus 2]

Now it don t feel like the world s on my shoulders
Everyone s leanin on me
Cause my baby knows that her daddy s a soldier
Nothin can take her from me

[Outro]

Woo!
I told you, I can t sing
Oh well, I tried
Hailie, remember when I said
If you ever need anything, daddy will be right there?
Well guess what, daddy s here
And I ain t goin nowhere baby
I love you (kiss)
