G Em7
I woke up this morning and I realised the date
C D
Forgot about my presents cos there was something I had to say
G Em7
To a very special person that makes every day worth living
C D
Because Christmas is a special time for giving

G Em7
Merry Christmas, Jack Howard
C D
Would ve asked for your number at that party but I was a coward
G Em7
Merry Christmas, Jack Howard
C D
Crap, nothing else rhymes with Jack Howard

For the videos in which you say things that make some people laugh
For the times I ve touched myself thinking of you in the bath
And for all the shipping rumours that have made some people cry
I put your face in a snow globe once and it improved my life

Merry Christmas, Jack Howard
Well I dream of the day that you come and give me... flowers
Nothing rhymes with Jack Howard
And I hope that next year brings you lots of things you haven t seen
Merry Christmas, Jack Howard (and Dean)

Enjoy :)
