

Edward Is Dedward
Emmy the Great

G
Farewell to Ed
Em
For Ed is dead
C
The careless boy
D
Laid to rest
A velvet floor
To place his head
An empty bag
A wooden chest

Em D
Still beautiful in death
C G
The moisture fogs my breath
Em D
Two hundred lowered eyes
C G
A hundred mute goodbyes

Em D
I never thought your threats would come good
Em D
You never did what you said you would

Your mum and dad
They look so old
All huddled up
In an inky cloak
Iâ€™m not surprised
This room is cold
Itâ€™s empty too
Itâ€™s stinks of floss
I sat with dad and drank some beer
We hadnâ€™t spoken since last year

I took his hand, led him upstairs
Silently drew his body near
I couldnâ€™t see, missed you so much
Missed you so large I had to fuck
Between your sheets all charred with grief
The pillows tainted with your dreams
I didnâ€™t want to stop that fate
I shouldâ€™ve said a thousand things
Yeh, but hey
Like we agreed
I will be brave
I will pour whisky
On your grave
Smoke cigarettes
Amongst the stones
Sprinkle champagne
Upon your bones
If burial restricts your view
Iâ€™ll bring the city here to you
Iâ€™ll pack the river and the clock
Wrap it into a picnic box
With golden bows
And crystal mugs
My dancing heels
Will feel the mud
Weâ€™ll disco boogie until the dawn
Iâ€™ll teach the village how to mourn
My living room
In future times
Youâ€™re just a face
Above my fire
I futile sound
A distant chime
Iâ€™ll think of this
And I will cry
Perhaps Iâ€™ll drop my toast
The sound of shattered glass
Thought I forgot at last
Some things just never pass
Easy to say
Hard to believe
Thereâ€™ll come a day
That I donâ€™t grieve
Until the time
My body leaves
I will regret
That you donâ€™t breath
