

Everything Reminds Me Of You
Emmy the Great

C E
Everything reminds me of you,
Am F
Somewhere out roaming tonight,
F G
You fought the bottle, and I
C
Came out behind.

C E Am
Now everything reminds me of you, tonight
F G C
Oh but the fire, Will carry less higher, in time.

C E
And the drinks have been drunk,
F C
And the ships have been sunk,
Am C G
And the barmaids are going to bed.
F/Am G7
Oh but my memory,
Am C
Is alive as the sea,
F G
Coming over the shoreline
C
Like a breath.

Everything reminds me of you,
Somewhere out roaming tonight,
You fought the bottle, and I came out behind.

C E Am
You were gone in a breeze like the heart that was squeezing too tight
F G C
Oh but the fire, Will carry less higher, in time.

And the drinks have been drunk,
And the ships have been sunk,
And the barmaids are going to bed.
Oh but my memory, Is alive as the sea,
Coming over the shoreline, Like a breath.

(C E Am)
(Da da da da daaaaa da)
(F G C)
