

War

Emmy the Great

Slightly different from the previous version...

Capo 3

Em C
The dream that i have is always the same
D G
a foot falls like an echo of a step i didn t take Em
and i see you coming in like you were never gone, C
tell me, why did i wake?
Here in the world i was hiding from,
G
they re expecting it to rain

C G
they say that the winter clears the drains Am Em C G
that time heals all things
C G
and they said that the thought of you would fade, Am Em C G D
well i see nothing change.

Em C
and the dream that i have, breaks just like the day
D
i walk along the shore,
G
i take a picture of the waves
Em
and then i throw it to the floor,
C
i say why did i wake?
D G
Here in the world there is nothing more than your absence
now the sky is turning grey
G
now the birds have left the bay
Am Em C G C
now time is shrinking and they
G
said that the thought of you would fade
Am Em C G D

well i dont feel that way.

C G
and hey, do you remember me the way
Am Em C G C
that i remember you?

G
and every movement of the waves,
Am Em C G C
oh they replaced the train

G
all the people went away,

Am Em C G
and i feel nothing

C
they say that winter clears the drains

Am Em C G Am Em
well i dream lightly.. of sunshine

G
