

A New Beginning

Endochine

Endochine - a new beginning.

Tabbed by - Iamjonscranium

7/4 or 3/4-4/4 time.

Play each chord for the amount of beats written below it. I ll give you a start, but you have to get used to the rhythm changes for yourself. Much of the 3/4 sections should be played with downstrums only, then the 4/4 with alternating strums.

The music is actually piano mostly in this song, but the chords here go well with it.

thanks

Royce for the help. See bottom for tab of F#m, Bm7, E*, and Abarr. if you choose, you can play all the D and A as barr chords
