Intro: Em---
D----

D
Many highways I ve been on
A7 A7(9)
Since I went chasing a song,
Em A7
And I left you standing alone
A7/F# D
In the soft morning sunlight.

D
Now it s summer just like it was then
A7 A7(9)
You were waving goodbye in the wind,
Em A7 A7/F#
And I heard you ask if I intend

D

To ever settle down.

G

Lady,

D

Do you still seek the mysteries of life?

A A7

Or have you become some businessman s wife?

D D7

And do you still long to be free?

G

Lady,

D

When you stare up at the stars out in the night

A A7

Do you still think this old world could turn out right?

D

Do you ever think of me?

D

The moon lit and danced on your hair

A7

A7(9)

We sat for some time on the stairs

Em

A7

And I d give anything that we could share

A7/F#

D

Those moments again.

D

But, I m surrounded by velvet and gold

A7

A7(9)

And strangers who offer their souls

Em

A7

But, they all seem so hollow and cold

A7/F#

D D7

When I remember you.

G

Lady,

D

Do you still seek the mysteries of life?

A A7

Or have you become some businessman s wife?

D D7

And do you still long to be free?

G

Lady,

D

When you stare up at the stars out in the night

A A7

Do you still think this old world could turn out right?

D

Do you ever think of me?

A A7 pause

Lady,

D---

Do you ever think of me?
