

Broken Line

Enter the Haggis

Enter the Haggis - Broken Line

=====

Tabbed by Owen Tosh

mailfortytwo@gmail.com

http://42.servehttp.com

Intro:

F#m

Bm

Bm A E

Bm A E

Bm A E

Bm A E Esus E

Bm A E
Restless is dawn as it wanders the farm house

Bm A E
A new day awaits though heâ€™s worked through the night

Bm A E
Patiently planting his thoughts on the pages

Bm A E Esus E
Under the mumble of kerosene light

Bm A E
Off to the West you can feel it coming

Bm A E
A thick, steel vein for a river of power

Bm A E
Carelessly turning the earth into wasteland

Bm A E Esus E
As thousands of years disappear in an hour

Bm D A E
Hold your ground on the wrong side of the plough

Bm D A E
Theyâ€™re closer now to a cold, black, broken line

Bm D A E
Hold your ground when they come to cut you down

Bm D A E
Theyâ€™re closer now to the rock that breaks the tines

Bm A E
Can't see what you do from back in the boardroom

Bm A E
Faceless equations of profit and cost

Bm A E
They wave you away like a fly on the radar

Bm A E Esus E
But keep coming back and you'll throw them off course

A B E A
Though it's always been this way

B E A
Doesn't mean that it's your fate

B E
But you know it takes the

D A D A
Strength of heart and mind

D Asus A E Esus E
And the faith someday the world will see your side

Bm A E
Nothing is lost if you give yourself wholly

Bm A E
Nothing is gained if you keep it inside

Instrumental Ending:

G Bm A D (repeat)