

Waiting For The Day Erasure

Words and music by Vince Clarke and Andy Bell

Intro:

D		G
Ooh oh whoa		Ooh oh whoa
D		G

D
 It was only for a fight
G
 That I asked you to come in
A
 But you brought me tumblin' down
D
 And the walls came caving in
D
 Won't you help me dry my tears
G
 Help me roll away the years
A
 Then perhaps I will forgive you
D
 And the hurt will disappear

G
 But in a fit of blind arrogance
A
Asus4
 You stood up and walked away
D
G
 If you d given me half a chance

A

I ll be waiting for the day

D

For the day that you

Oh oh come back to me

Come on back to me
D Bm D
 You oh come back to me

A G D G

So forget the long goodbye
You never really tried

Threw the keys down on the table

A

You've got your sense of pride

D

Then you had to tell the world

D

Your story must be heard

G

Slammed the door behind you

A

Without a single word

D

But in a fit of blind arrogance

G

You stood up and walked away

A

The day that you

D

Oh oh come back to me

Bm

D

A G

Come on back to me

You oh come back to me, come on back to me

D Bm

D

A G

You oh come back to me, come on back to me

D Bm D A G

You oh oh come back to me

Bb

You know I never had a single thought in my head, no I

D Bb

Never had a single thought

breakdown, no chords

Oh for the day that you

D

Oh oh come back to me, come on back to me

Bm

D

A G

Oh oh come back to me, come on back to me

D Bm D A G

You oh oh come back to me, come on back to me

D

You can be my lifelong friend

Bm

You can be the light of dawn

D

You can keep me close at hand

A G

You can keep me safe and warm

D

I will be your fantasy

Bm

If you come and stay with me

D

I will try to give you all

A G

Waiting for the night to fall

D

You can be the light of day

Bm

You can be my lifelong friend

D

You can keep me close at hand

A G

Waiting for the day to end

D

I will be your fantasy

Bm

If you come and stay with me

D

I will try to give my all

A G

Waiting for the night to fall