

Waiting For The Day
Erasure

Words and music by Vince Clarke and Andy Bell

Intro:

D Ooh oh whoa G Ooh oh whoa

D G

D
It was only for a fight

G
That I asked you to come in

A
But you brought me tumblin down

D
And the walls came caving in

D
Won t you help me dry my tears

G
Help me roll away the years

A
Then perhaps I will forgive you

D
And the hurt will disappear

G
But in a fit of blind arrogance

A Asus4
You stood up and walked away

D G
If you d given me half a chance

A
I ll be waiting for the day

D
For the day that you

Bm D
Oh oh come back to me

A G
Come on back to me

D Bm D
You oh come back to me

A G D G

D
So forget the long goodbye

G
You never really tried

A
Threw the keys down on the table

D
You've got your sense of pride

D
Then you had to tell the world

G
Your story must be heard

A
Slammed the door behind you

D
Without a single word

G
But in a fit of blind arrogance

A
You stood up and walked away

D
The day that you

Bm D
Oh oh come back to me

A G
Come on back to me

D Bm D A G

You oh come back to me, come on back to me

D Bm D A G

You oh oh come back to me

Bb
You know I never had a single thought in my head, no I

D Bb

Never had a single thought

breakdown, no chords

D
Oh for the day that you

Bm D A G

Oh oh come back to me, come on back to me

D Bm D A G

You oh oh come back to me, come on back to me

D
You can be my lifelong friend

Bm
You can be the light of dawn

D
You can keep me close at hand

A G

You can keep me safe and warm

D
I will be your fantasy

Bm

If you come and stay with me

D

I will try to give you all

A G

Waiting for the night to fall

D

You can be the light of day

Bm

You can be my lifelong friend

D

You can keep me close at hand

A G

Waiting for the day to end

D

I will be your fantasy

Bm

If you come and stay with me

D

I will try to give my all

A G

Waiting for the night to fall