Eric Church

[Intro]

D G D

[Verse 1]

D

They can make cars drive themselves

G

And prove time-travel ain t crazy as hell

D

A

They ve even got a pill to make a soft package hard

D

But as far as we ve came

G

When it comes to love and to blame

D

A

And the breaking of a lover s heart

D

I think we re sorely lacking methods

G

So I m going with old time-tested:

D A D

A jukebox and a bar

[Chorus 1]

G

One pushes me up the mountain

D

And one rolls me down the hill

Bm

D

While I sit in a phosphorescent dark

G

So you can keep your fancy potions

D

A

And your incandescent notions

Bm

A

G

As for me and my barely-beating heart

D

There s no better prescription

G

For my broken disposition

D A

Than a jukebox and a bar

[Verse 2]

D

We got pinpoint GPS

G

All you need is an address

D

A

But her love is the one thing I can't find

D

Meanwhile no one has a clue

G

D

How to make her memory turn loose

D

So much for academic minds

[Chorus 1]

G

One pushes me up the mountain

D

And one rolls me down the hill

Bm

D

While I sit in a phosphorescent dark

G

D

So you can keep your fancy potions

D

A

And your incandescent notions

Bm

A

G

As for me and my barely-beating heart

D

There's no better prescription

G

For my the human condition

D

D

Than a jukebox and a bar

[Outro]

D

May look like music, booze, and beer

G

There's a whole more goin' on in here

D

D

Than a jukebox and a bar
