

Monsters

Eric Church

[Verse 1]

E C#m
I killed my first monster when I was seven years old
E B
He melted like butter in my bathroom s sixty-watt bulb
E C#m
Kept a three-cell MagLite from Daddy s workshop drawer
E B
Under my pillow and I d pull it like a sword

[Chorus]

A E B C#m
Any more when a restless feelin keeps me up at night
A E B E
Fallin on my knees is my new turnin on the light
A E B C#m
I keep my faith intact, make sure my prayers are said
A E A E A
Cause I ve learned that the monsters ain t the ones beneath the bed

[Verse 2]

E A
The wolf hunts a hungry man and the devil a lonely heart
E B
A minefield of bad decisions lay hidin in the dark
E A
Greed stalks, sickness steals, and pride lays a wicked trap
E B E
You can t avoid em all, no, you gotta trust me on that

[Chorus]

A E B C#m
Any more when a restless feelin keeps me up at night
A E B E
Fallin on my knees is my new turnin on the light
A E B C#m
I keep my faith intact, make sure my prayers are said
A E B C#m
Cause I ve learned that the monsters ain t the ones beneath the bed
A E B E
I ve learned that the monsters ain t underneath the bed

[Verse 3]

E A
Daddy, check my closet, leave on the bathroom light
