Eric Church

[Intro]

D G

[Verse]

D D
To this day when I hear that song, I see you standing there on that lawn
G Bm Asus2
Discount shades, store bought tan, flip-flops and cut off jeans
D D
Somewhere between that setting sun, I m On Fire and Born To Run
G Bm Asus2
You looked at me and I was done but we were just getting started

D
I was singing to you, you were singing to me
D
I was so alive, never been more free
G Bm Asus2
Fired up my daddy s lighter and we sang oh

D
Stated there till the forced us out
D
We took the long way to your house
G
And I can still hear the sound
Bm Asus2
Of you saying don t go

[Chorus]

D
When I think about you
Asus2
I think about 17
Bm
I think about my old Jeep
G
I think about the stars in the sky
Bm Asus2
Funny how a melody sounds like a memory
D G D Em
Like a soundtrack to a July Saturday night
D G

Springsteen

[Verse]

D

If I bumped into you by happenstance

D

You probably wouldn't even know who I am

G Bm Asus2

But if I whispered your name, I bet there'd still be a spark

D

From back when I was gasoline and this old tattoo had brand new ink

G Bm

And we didn't care what your mom would think 'bout your name on my

Asus2

arm

D

Baby is it spring or is it summer

D

The guitar sound or the beat of that drummer

G Bm Asus2

You hear sometimes late at night on your radio

D

Even though you're a million miles away

D

When you hear Born In The USA

G Bm Asus2

You relive those glory days from so long ago

[Chorus]

D

When I think about you

Asus2

I think about 17

Bm

I think about my old Jeep

G

I think about the stars in the sky

Bm Asus2

Funny how a melody sounds like a memory

D G D Em

Like a soundtrack to a July Saturday night

D G
