

San Francisco Bay Blues

Eric Clapton

(C* MEANS PLAY C AS A BAR CHORD!)

[Intro]

B E B B7 E B E B* Bb A G#7 C#7 F#7

[Verse]

B E B7 E B E B* Bb A G#7 C#7 F#7
I got the blues from my baby down by san francisco bay
E B
where the ocean liners are not so far away
E B* Bb A G#7
if i didnt mean to treat her so bad, she was the best friend i ever have had C#7 F#7
said goodbye, had a cry, wanna lay down and dieeeeeee

B E B B7
i aint got a nickel and i aint got a lousey dime
E Eb Eb7
if she dont come back i think im gonna lose my miiiiiiiiinnnd
E B* Bb A G#7
if i ever go back and stay, its gonna be another brand new day C#7 F#7 B
walking with my baby down by the san francisco baaaayyy

~~~~~
~for the harmonica solo and the legendary kazoo solo just play the verse~
~chords!~~~~~

B E B B E
sitting down looking from the back door, wondering which way to go E B
the women im so crazy about she dont love me no more E B* Bb A G#7
if i ever get freight a train(?) its coz im feeling blue
C#7 F#7
ride all the way to the end of the line thinking only youuuuu

B E B E B
meanwhile living in the city just about to go insane
E Eb Eb7
think i heard my babys voice the way she used to call my naaaaaammmmmme
E B* Bb A G# G#7
if i ever get back to stay its gonna be another brand new day
C#7 F#7 B* Bb A G#7
walking with my baby down by the san francisco bay
C#7 F#7 B* Bb A G#7
walking with my baby down by the san francisco bay

C#7

F#7

B E B F# B

ohh walking with my baby down by the san fransico bay