E Lord have A mercy, Lord have mercy on me. E
Well if I ve B done somebody wrong, A Lord, have mercy E if you please.
E I used to have plenty of money, A the finest clothes in town,
E But bad luck and trouble overtaken me, bound to get me down.
Please have A mercy, Lord have mercy on me. E
Well if I ve B done somebody wrong, A Lord, have mercy E if you please.
E A Keep on working now, child.
E A Lord every morning.
Solo on A E

After that, it turns into a flurry of notes, which is really hard to tab out, and I didn t find it quite compelling enough to spend all the time.}
E Well if I ve been a bad boy, baby, A I declare I ll change my ways.
E I don t want bad luck and trouble to follow me all my days.
Please have A mercy, Lord have mercy on me. E
Well if I ve B done somebody wrong, A Lord, have mercy E if you please.
