

Basement

Eric Hutchinson

BASEMENT VAN ERIC HUTCHINSON

By Tom Vink;)

REPEAT COUPLET

A D
I m going down to the basement, y all
A D
Where people have a good time
The parties that I hit
Have nothing to do with wit
My ears are going out of their mind, mind, mind, mind, mind
Down here they play the real thing
Songs that really are rock and roll
It s a cliché to put it this way
But they don t make em like that any more, more, more, more, more

PRE-REFREIN

E
And if they put me in the spotlight
D
I m never leaving the floor

REFREIN

A D
I m going down to the basement
I m going down to the basement
I m going down to the basement
E D A
Cause I really wanna rock and roll

COUPLET

An older man gets on the mic
Tells us to hang our burdens up
He says songs you hear today
All start to get in the way
Til you re barely even feeling the love, love, love, love, love
He drops the needle on a pop song
He drops the needle on some soul
I watch a pair fall in love over there
Dancing to songs their parents would know, know, know, know, know

So everybody give me room now
Watch me cut a rug in the show

REFREIN

I m going down to the basement

I m going down to the basement
I m going down to the basement
Cause I really wanna rock and roll

BRIDGE!

Alright

C B A
Party people sweat out the night
C B A
Let your body do just what it likes, no
C B
I just wanna hear
A G F
Something from before my years
~REST~
Dance soldiers
Forgetting our day jobs
Trying get our funk on
A D
Cause they came to rock and roll

REFREIN

I m going down to the basement
I m going down to the basement
I m going down to the basement
Cause I really wanna rock and roll

It goes like this

I m going down to the basement

I m going down to the basement

I m talking little Stevie Wonder

I m talking Mr. Ronald Isley

I m talking J-J-J-J-James Brown

I m talking Miss Aretha Franklin

I m talking sister, sister?

I m talking M-M-Michael Jackson

I m talking Mr. Otis Ray

I m talking Ike and Tina Turner

Oooo!

I m going down to the basement
I m going down to the basement
I m going down to the basement
Cause I really wanna rock and roll

I said really wanna rock and roll
I said really wanna rock and roll
I said really wanna rock and roll
Said I really wanna rock and roll
Said I really wanna rock and roll
