So much stronger than before

Times can be heavy, you just don t feel right

You struggle inside just to get through the night

Some days you re raining and sometimes it shines

Some nights you fall like a star from the sky

If you lost feeling ready, to give up the fight

Know that I always be right by your side so just

Hold on, sometimes it s hard but just

Walk on, look to your heart and you

Find a way, someday, you won t cry anymore
