Two Glasses, Joe
Cindy Walker

(as recorded by Ernest Tubb)

G
Set up two glasses, Joe
A
And turn the jukebox low
D G
And let me sit and reminisce

G
While I pretend that she
A
Is sitting here with me
D G
The way she did not long ago

C
We used to paint the town red
G
And dance until two
A
Well, I don t paint it red no more
D
But I m painting it blue

G
He stole her love I know
A
But he can t stop me, Joe
D G
>From having just a dream or two

Instrumental break

G

Set up two glasses, Joe

A

Maybe you didn't know

D

G

But there's a memory in the room

G

A memory that walks

A

A memory that talks

D

G

And haunts me everywhere I go

C

I'm just a fool who loves here

G

And will till I die

A

>From the very first hello

D

To the last hello

G

Well this is it you know

A

So fill the glasses Joe

D

G

And leave me here alone to cry
