Two Glasses, Joe
Cindy Walker

(as recorded by Ernest Tubb)

F
Set up two glasses, Joe
G
And turn the jukebox low
C F
And let me sit and reminisce

F
While I pretend that she
G
Is sitting here with me
C F
The way she did not long ago

Bb
We used to paint the town red
F
And dance until two
G
Well, I don t paint it red no more
C
But I m painting it blue

F
He stole her love I know
G
But he can t stop me, Joe
C F
>From having just a dream or two

Instrumental break

F

Set up two glasses, Joe

G

Maybe you didn't know

C

F

But there's a memory in the room

F

A memory that walks

G

A memory that talks

C

F

And haunts me everywhere I go

Bb

I'm just a fool who loves here

F

And will till I die

G

>From the very first hello

C

To the last hello

F

Well this is it you know

G

So fill the glasses Joe

C

F

And leave me here alone to cry
