G C
Crashed down on the floor, hold your breath and fall apart.

G C
You made a simple mistake and now you re paying for it with your heart.

G C
Some of us make our own beds, but we can t afford to lay in them.

Em D C
Remember I always have said you should leave me alone.

G C
Cause I don t wanna crash now I m afraid, that I m going nowhere way too fast.

G C
And I can t hear what you say, I m in a conversation with my past.

Em D C
And maybe it wasn t brave, so much as brazen but it got me through.

Em D C
And somehow the path that I ve paved just keeps leading me to you.

G Cadd9
But I don t wanna crash now, mm mm.

G Am G
I don t wanna crash now, mm mm mm.

G C
I shouldn t have been afraid to let you down,

G C
I just wanna hold you in my arms again.

G C
If only for a moment I could have you here,

Em D C
Lady, I would never let you go.

G C
Cause I don t wanna crash now, no oh.

G C
I don t wanna crash now, no way.

Bb Fm
Come on in the sun,

G# D#
When you re scared, and facin down.

Bb      Fm
Cause here I am, in front of you,
          G#   D#
and you will not, be alone.

G
Keep facing the sun you ll reach it one day,
C                                  Em                  D                  C
Baby don t look back til you get what you need, and you need to be free.
      G
And when the sun rolls down there s still tomorrow,
C                                  Em                  D                  C
Don t you be afraid to let your sorrow breathe, your strength is all you need.

G                                  C
Did you ever know you were the one?

G                                  C
Cause I could hardly even tell.
