Etham - Better Now (Acoustic)
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tCgPLh7VMlU>
Played with barre chords throughout.

[Intro]

Em7 Bm7 G
Em7 Bm7 G
Em7 Bm7 G A F#m

[Verse 1]

Em7 Bm7 G
It s been a few days, nothing s the same, you re a stranger
Em7 Bm7 G
But in my heart, I know that there s no one that could know you better.
Em7 Bm7 G A F#m
Maybe you re right, but I need time for me to write this chapter on my own

[Verse 2]

Em7 Bm7 G
So many fights, so many nights I couldn t hold my anger
Em7 Bm7 G
I d sleep in my car and wonder if I get to see you later
Em7 Bm7 G A F#m
I m done with the lies, done with the trying so I guess you re not my problem
now

[Chorus]

G
Cause I just want to hold you close
A
But I just went and let you go
Bm
Mistakes are irreversible
Asus4 A
So I think this might be better now
G
I don t want to drink tonight
A
But I need something to disguise
Bm
This pain that sits beneath my eyes, and in my mind
Asus4 A G
I think this might be better now, better now, I m better now

[Interlude]

Asus4 A Bm Asus4 A
Ooh ooh, no no

[Verse 2]

Em7                      Bm7                      G
I wish you had faith but I was faced with an ultimatum
Em7                      Bm7                      G
You knew I had dreams so who were you to tell me to forget them
Em7                      Bm7                      G
And now it all seems your world is crashing down
                    A                      F#m
You re blaming me for all that s been done

[Chorus]

G
Cause I just want to hold you close
                                    A
But I just went and let you go
                                    Bm
Mistakes are irreversible
                    Asus4                      A
So I think this might be better now
                                    G
I don t want to drink tonight
                                    A
But I need something to disguise
                                    Bm
This pain that sits beneath my eyes, and in my mind
            Asus4                      A                      Em
I think this might be better now, better now, I m better now

[Bridge]

Em
So I guess you were a liar
G
You said you want it all, want it all
D                                      A
But you didn t have that fire for us,
Em
And when the truth comes I m a danger
G
And I won t hold you back, hold you back
D                                      A                      G
Now we ve lost what still remains of our trust

[Chorus]

G
Cause I just want to hold you close
                                    A
But I just went and let you go
                                    D
Mistakes are irreversible
                    Asus4                      A
So I think this might be better now
                                    G
I don t want to drink tonight

A

But I need something to disguise

Bm

This pain that sits beneath my eyes, and in my mind

Asus4

A

G

I think this might be better now, better now, I m better now

[Interlude]

Asus4 A Bm Asus4 A

Ooh ooh, no no

[Chorus]

G

Cause I just want to hold you close

A

But I just went and let you go

G

Mistakes are irreversible

A

F#m

So I think this might be better now
