Shotgun
Eugene McGuinness

Quite a simple song to play, yet very cool.
The chords I use are all barre, with the root on the 6th string.

Intro riff:

All aboard Cleopatra purrs... aha
Pens and swords, the gun s mightier
A mane of gold like a flame from a skull
Upon the wings of an angel
We ll leave this hellhole

Little boy lost down devil s alley
The mad Alsatian can almost taste me
Merrily merrily in terror I flee
Into the glow of traffic like a lava flow you ll see me

G
Every time I dance
Every time I dance with you
        Bb
I ll stagger out the nightclub black and blue, battered and bruised

But I care not
