

My Love Is Like A Red Red Rose
Eva Cassidy

Originally written by Robert Burns but Eva Cassidy also does a beautiful cover :)

D7 optional - whatever sounds best to you
Capo 1

Enjoy!

G Em
My love is like a red, red rose
C D [D7]

That s newly sprung in June;

G Em
My love is like a melody
C D [D7] G

So sweetly play d in tune

G C G
As fair art thou, my bonnie lad,
C D [D7]

So deep in love am I;

G Em C G
And I will love thee still, my dear,
C D G

Though all the seas gone dry.

G Em
Though all the seas gone dry, my dear,
C D [D7]

And the rocks melt with the sun;

G Em
I will love thee still my dear,
C D [D7] G

Though the sands o life shall run.

G C G
So fare-thee-weel, my only love!
C D [D7]

And fare-thee-weel awhile!

G Em C G
And I will come to you again,
C D G

Though it were ten thousand miles!

G Em
Though it were ten thousand miles, my dear
C D [D7]

Though it were ten thousand miles.

G Em

I will come to you again.

C D [D7] G

Though it were ten thousand miles
