F G F C
Why I left you and said goodbye

I know you re different now and I guess I ve changed too
 And I thought what once was right was so wrong for you
 Yesterday I was talking and I heard your name
 The weather s fine here with a slight chance of rain
 So I called you up just to tell you why
 Why I left you and said goodbye
 Ooooh must be the mood I m in
 I m thinking of you again
 I called you up just to tell you why
 Why I left you and said goodbye

Time makes you sorry for the things that you ve done
 Sometimes you walk away and sometimes you run
 And the weather s fine here I can feel a slight chill
 Something s change and some never will
 So I called you up just to tell you why
 Why I left you and said goodbye
 Oooh, must be the mood I m in
 I m thinking of you again
 I called you up just to tell you why
 Why I left you and said goodbye
 I called you up to tell you why
 To say I love you and to say goodbye
