The transition of 6th string can be modified by playing the G-string as well if you d like. The above pattern is simplified
For the intro, follow the first line of the pattern tab
For the verses, it feels like there s a mix with a C at the end before going back to G (second line tab)
I hope this is not too confusing

[Verse 1]

G
It started in a flash
G C G
Two summers back
G
Everything as simple as
G C G
Simple as, simple as friends
G
And as time went by
G C G
You and I
G
Found ourselves falling in
G C G
Falling in, falling in love

[Pre-Chorus]

Em Am G
Life don t tell you when
Em Am G
Things will change again

D Em

Again

[Chorus]

G Em
I won't forget the times
C
I looked you in the eyes
D
And told you I loved you
G Em
Despite, the way I feel tonight
C
These tears in my eyes
G
It was lovely to love you

Back to plucking pattern

[Verse 2]

G
And as our love grew
G C G
Stronger than we knew
G
Before we even knew it
G C G
So deep into it, deep in love

[Pre-Chorus]

Em Am G
They say time don't tell you when
Em Am C
Things will change again
D Em
Again

[Chorus]

G Em
I won't forget the times
C
I looked you in the eyes
D C
And told you I loved you
G Em
Despite, the way I feel tonight
C
These tears in my eyes
D G
It was lovely to love you
G Em
And I won't forget the times
C

I looked you in the eyes

D C

And told you I loved you

G Em

Despite, the way I feel tonight

C

These tears in my eyes

D G

It was lovely to love you

Back to plucking pattern until ending

[Interlude]

G

Lovely, lovely, lovely, lovely

G

Lovely, lovely, lovely, lovely

[Ending]

N.C.

Hey, hey, hey

N.C.

I don't regret the days, days, days

N.C.

There's not a thing I'd change, change, change

N.C.

There's not a thing I'd change

G

Hey, hey, hey

G

C G

I don't regret the days, days, days

G

There's not a thing I'd change, change, change

G

C G

There's not a thing I'd change
