

You Only Want Me Cause You Want My Sister
Evelyn Evelyn

C D G Em
C D G

G D
You pulled up at the house at half past seven,
Em C
In your '69 Impala, shook hands with my father,
G D
And we stopped off at the drug store by the drive-in,
Em
For some Trojans and a six-pack,
C Am
Still your eyes kept wandering back to her,
C
It's always her
D
So let's get one thing straightened out here, sir

Chorus

C D
If you think you're seeing double
G Em
Let me save you some trouble
C D G
This ain't no two-for-one bargain here, mister
C D
'Cause I'm much more than just twice shy
G Em
I've had enough two-timing guys
C D G
Who only want me 'cause they want my sister
D
My eyes are just as blue as hers, my hair is just as fine,
Em C
And the tattoo on her lower back's exactly just like mine
G
But, if you look beneath the surface,
D
We're as different as can be,
Em
'Cause there's just one heart that beats for you
C
And that heart belongs to me
Am C
And not to her, it's always her

D

So let's get one thing straight if I'm your girl

Chorus

Em

And if tomorrow you should die

C

My sister would not bat an eye

G

She doesn't even know your name

D

She's going with some other guy

Em

As long as she is still around

C

I'll always have a trace of doubt

D

I need to know your love is real, but how?

G

D

We're all dressed up, the flowers sure are pretty

Em

Mother pays her last respects

C

I look around, no one suspects

G

D

That it was me who put the Drano in her coffee

Em

And now that she is underground

C

I'll know that you're not hanging around

Am

C

For her, no, not for her

D

G

And now I'll know your love is true for sure

D

It pains my heart to think of her

G

A rotting, stinking, maggot-infested,

Em

Bloated, and pus-oozing corpse beneath the earth

C

D

Em

You can't imagine just how much I miss her,

C

D

G

But now I know you want me, not my sister.
