D D/B D D/B

Verse 1:

D D/B
I dreamed about you again last night
D D/B
You never have the same face twice
G/C
But I always know it s you,
D D/B
and you re always looking better than you really do
D D/B
Than you really do
D D/B
And I walk around the whole next day
D D/B
Feeling like I still got something to say
G/C
But I don t know what it is
D D/B
And I don t know how to reach you even if I did
D D/B
Even if I did

Chorus:

A
Do I wanna hear that you forgive me?
Em D/B
Do I wanna hear you re no good without me?
A Em

And am I big enough to hear

A

that you never even think about me?

D

D/B

Why should you ever think about me?

D/B

Verse 2:

D/B

I thought that I'd outgrow this kind of thing

D/B

Tell me, aren't we supposed to mature or something?

G/C

D/B

I haven't found that yet, is this as grown-up as we ever get?

D/B

Maybe this is as good as it gets?

Chorus:

A

Years may go by

Em

D/B

But I think the heart remains a child

D/B

The mind may grow wise

D

But the heart just sulks and it whines and remains a child
