

Alaska

Eyes Adrift

Instrument: Guitar

Song: Alaska

Artist: Eyes Adrift

Album: Eyes Adrift (2002)

Tabber: Lachlan Hart (eleventh_fret@hotmail.com)

Standart Tuning F# B E A C# F#

*I write the note letters from High to Low rather than the other way because I find it easier to read.

Intro / Verse

F#

C#

D --0---0-----0-0---0---0-----0---0--
A -3---2---0-----3---2---0-----
E -----2-2-3-----3-----

As you can see, nice and open... sounds lovely. You can change the rhythm of those open notes if you want to, its all good. Thats all there is until the chorus, which is simply:

B

Used to be, cheap love song

Satellite, as it falls in Alaska

Just repeat that progression.

The only other part that differs is in the repeats of the chorus at the end, Curt plays a noise solo, so you can improvise that and be creative. At the end of the chorus, Krist plays his little bass thingy and it goes back to the verse riff again.

And thats that. I strongly recommend the CD to anyone who is a Meat Puppets, Nirvana or Sublime fan, as well as anyone who enjoys some good rock and roll.

Any corrections, compliments, questions, or requests just email me at eleventh_fret@hotmail.com.

Have fun!
