

Wild Rosemarie
Ezra Furman & The Harpoons

Intro:

e		-0-0---4-7-4-----4-7-4-----
B		-0-0-2-----7-----5-----5-5/7-9-7-9-
G		-1-1-----4-----6--6-----		x2
D		-2-2-----
A		-2-2-----
E		-0-0-----

E B

I thought about water, I thought about the rose late at night

A A

I thought about drinking, I started to hope you were all right.

E B

And I thought about calling, but I was afraid you d be asleep.

A A

I thought about God as a shepard wandering the hells looking for lost sheep

E B

And I thought about Wild Rosemarie; how that was who you used to be

A A

How the wilderness sprang up around us, this dry desert heat

E

And I thought about water

[Intro x 2]

E B

I thought about honey, how I used to call you by it s name

A

How you move so slow and sticky down my throat

A

And how dry I became

E B

I thought about the highways, all tangeled up like a ball of snakes

A

A

and the poison backroads and what a long time it d take

E

B

to find you Wild Rosemarie, all cracked up on I-93.

A

A

The choice was your own to strip flesh from the bone and become really free

E

B

And I thought about water, how it drowned us after all

A

A

How we used to thirst for it to burst forth from the sky and start to fall

E

B

And I just got scared that you were still out wandering tonight

A

A

So here s this letter I hope you made it back alright

E

Love always

E B A A(repeat until end)