Dm Eb C

[Verse]

F C F
Deep and dark are my true love s eyes

Bb C F
Blacker still is the winter turning

Bb C F
As the sadness of parting proves

Bb C F
And brighter now is the lantern burning

Bb C F
That lightens my path to her

[Verse]

C F C F
No fiddle tune will take the air

Bb C F
But I ll see her swift feet a-dancing

Bb C F
And the swirl of her long brown hair

Bb C F
Her smiling face and her dark eyes glancing

Bb C Dm
As we stepped up from Banbury Fair

[Instrumental]

[Verse]

F C F
If my waiting prove in vain

Bb C F
Then I ll pack and track ever take me

Bb C F
And the long road will ease my pain

Bb C F Bb F
No jewelled mankind will ever make me

Bb C F
Whisper love s words again

[Verse]

C F C F
For in drink I ll seek good company

My ears will ring with the tavern s laughter

And I ll hear not her last sweet sigh

Bb C F

And who s to know in the morning after

Bb C F

How I long for her dear dark eyes

Bb C F C F

And I long for her dear dark eyes

Bb C F C F

How I long for her dear dark eyes
