Em7 D A D G D

[Verse]

D A D G D A D
Everyone can hear the music
G
You can taste the mood of the wine
Em7 D A D A
Getting high on the beer and the atmosphere of a good time
D A D G D A D
You can hear everyone laughing
G
Like they've got something to share
Em7 D A D G D Bm
Cigarette smoke and bad jokes hang in the air

[Verse]

A
But Ginnie doesn't hear it
G D Em
I wonder does she realise
D G A Bm
She's sitting there with that faraway look in her eyes
A
Where she goes, she doesn't say
G D
But she'll leave you way behind
Em D G A
Going nowhere, soon, she'll be somewhere else in her mind

[Chorus]

D G
But if the music is right
D G Em
And the rhythm is light
G D A D G D
Ginnie will dance the jig tonight

[Verse]

D A D G D A D
Soon we'll all be singing
G
The chorus from some old song
Em7 D A D A
Guitars, fiddles, everything playing along

D A D G D A D

We ll all be hitting the high note

G

When the piano begins to play

Em7 D A D G D Em

All those songs we hate, but we sing them anyway

[Verse]

But Ginnie doesn t hear it

G D Em

It s that moment when she goes

D G A Em

Some place in her mind nobody knows

A

Her laughter s gone, her smile is faded

G D

She loses it all and then

Em D G A

That something forgotten comes back now and again

[Chorus]

D G

But if the music is right

D G Em

And the rhythm is light

G D A D

Ginnie will dance the jig tonight

A forgotten moment of some old memory
