If I had ribbon bow to tie my hair
A D
And a gown of calico for me to wear
B E B E
I d surely get a sweetheart, a prince or a king
A B E
A palace home where I could have everything

Am D A D
If I had a ribbon bow to tie my hair
Am D A Dm
This old world could come and go, I wouldn t care
B E B E
I d stay up in my castle and I d always wear
E A Bm A
A ribbon bow so fine to tie my hair

D A C A
All the live long day to the Lord above me

There s a story of a girl, a story seldom told

Gm C Gm C
What she wanted from this world was not of gems or gold

C F E
Her wishes were quite plain as you will see

F E
For often she would simply make this plea

A D Am F#m
All the live long day to the Lord above me
