Fairport Convention

[Chorus]

C G/B Am C D
Matthew, Mark, Luke and John
G D
Come down and show us what s wrong

[Verse]

C
When every word s been sung or spoken
G D
And bygone battles have been lost or won
C
When all is mended that once was broken
G D
Who crawled will surely run

[Verse]

C
And when all our creeds and all of our deeds
G D
Are centred on each other s needs
C
When men depend on harmonies
G D
The world will have begun

[Chorus]

C G/B Am C D
Matthew, Mark, Luke and John
G
Are you really real, do you love every one?
C G/B Am C D
Matthew, Mark, Luke and John
G D
Come down and show us what s wrong

[Verse]

C
If the sins of the father are also the son s
G D
What chance do we have in this game
C
Everything s blacker, we argue with guns
G D
With money we burn and we maim

[Verse]

C

And is it all for a reason, this game without end

D

To be rich, you have to have poor

C

And is feasting to famine, like sitting to standing

D

Or is there a hole in god s door?
