

One More Chance
Fairport Convention

Intro: G D Em C Am G D

G D Em D
Calling all olive branches and laid off doves
Am G D
There is work to do before we say goodbye
Em D C G
But who can see them turning to the face of love
D Em C
Though I hear them pleading with me, don't let us die
G D Em
As I sit I can see their troubled souls wander by
C G D Em C Em
And I feel them leaning on my shoulder to cry
G D G
Oh, one more chance
G D Em D
Naked tree of winter seems to stand so proud
C G D
Lording the poor mortal as he goes
Em D C G
And the tears which well beneath his somber shroud
D Em C
Will they fall with the shame of somebody who knows
G D Em C
He can never be like the thought of a rose
G D Em C G
Whose beauty remains, even when the bloom goes
D G
Oh, oh, one more chance
G D G D
Or is it too late to change the ways we're bound to go
Am Bb Am G D
Is it too late, there's surely one of us must know

G D Em C X 3 G D G

G Bb F D G Bb F
Is it too late to change the ways we're bound to go
Am Bb Am F G D
Is it too late, there's surely one of us must know

G D Em C X 3 G D G

F Bb Am G F G D
Is it too late, there's surely one of us must know
G D Bb C D

Is it too late to change the ways we're bound to go

C Bb Am

G

F

D G D G

Is it too late, there's surely one of us must know