

Reynardine
Fairport Convention

Intro: C G D D

 D D
One evening as I rambled,
 G D
Among the leaves so green,
 D D
I overheard a young woman,
 C G D
Converse with Reynardine.

 D D
Her hair was black, her eyes were blue,
 G D
Her lips were red as wine,
 D D
And he smiled to gaze upon her,
 C G D
Did sly old Reynardine.

 D D
She said, Kind sir be civil,
 G C
My company forsake,
 D D
For to my own opinion,
 C G D
I fear you are some rake.

 D D
Oh no, he said no rake am I,
 G D
Brought up in Venus train,
 D D
But I m searching for concealment,
 C G D
All on the lonesome plain.

 D D
Your beauty so enticed me,
 G C
I could not pass it by,
 D D
So it s with my gun I ll guide you,
 C G D
All on the mountains high.
