

Sir Patrick Spens
Fairport Convention

G D G D
The King sits in Dunfirmline town,
G D G D
drinking of the blood-red wine
Em C G D
Where can I get a steely skipper
D C G Am to sail this might boat of mine?

G D G D
Then up there spoke a bonny boy,
sitting at the King's right knee
Em C G D
Sir Patrick Spens is the very best seaman
D C G Am
that ever sailed upon the sea

The King has written a broad letter and sealed it up with his own right hand Sending word unto Sir Patrick to come to him at his command

An enemy then this must be who told the lie concerning me For I was never a very good seaman, nor ever do intend to be

Last night I saw the new moon clear with the old moon in her hair And that is a sign since we were born that means there'll be a deadly storm

They had not sailed upon the deep a day, a day but barely free
When loud and boisterous blew the winds and loud and noisy blew the sea

Then up there came a mermaid, a comb and glass all in her hand Here's to you my merry young men for you'll not see dry land again

Long may my lady stand with a lantern in her hand Before she sees my bonny ship come sailing homeward to dry land

Forty miles off Aberdeen, the waters fifty fathoms deep There lies good Sir Patrick Spens with the Scots lords at his feet
