Verse

D A G D
Silver tongues are speaking long and hard into the night
Em A
I must be myself and I ll do alright
G A D A Em D
Oh, please my darling, do not make me sad
A G D D Em A
Late at night nobody really wants to feel that bad

Verse

D A G D
The rain it beats impatiently upon the windowpane
Em A G
I must close my ears or I ll go insane
A D A Em D
Can t you be a gentle breeze or silent as a snowfall
A G D
Won t you try and listen for the voice behind the wall
Em A
It cries to you

G D Em D
Even though it only ever whispers part of what it knows
G D Em D
And it s never ventured through the locks where the brazen river flows
G D Em Gm Gm7
It s the fingerprint which is never made, it s the perfume of a rose....

Verse

D A G D
And it is there if you are searching, but the moment must be right
Em A
As the night is black, as the day it is light
G A D A Em D
Please.. my friend, help to make me glad
A G D
Help me find the one and only thing I ve never had Em A
