Faith Hill

Song : American Heart
Artist : Faith Hill, written by Jonathan Singleton & Jim Beavers
Album : Illusion
Key : D/E
Changes to E At the end

[Intro]

D G

[Verse 1]

D Dmaj7 G
She s up before the sun, on the run, another dollar, another day, another cup of coffee

D G
Thank you, Lord, for giving me one more

D Dmaj7 G
She still leans on her dreams but it seems, sometimes she s the only one who still believes

Bm A G
That life is hard, so she takes it on with an American Heart

[Chorus]

D G
And it beats like a drum down in New Orleans, sings like a Motown melody

D G
It dreams like California, bigger than the Texas sky

D F# Bm A G
It bleeds, it scars, but it shines when times get hard
D D/F# G D D/F# G
And you can t break an American heart

[Verse 2]

D Dmaj7 G
From the small town Friday night lights to the Broadway neon burning up bright

D G
We re all the same and it s in our veins

D Dmaj7 G
A spirit that you can t keep down, a fire inside that ll never burn out

Bm A G
If you are the owner of an American heart

[Chorus]

E A
And it beats like a drum down in New Orleans, sings like a Motown melody

E A
It dreams like California, bigger than the Texas sky

E G# C#m B A

It bleeds, it scars, but it shines when times get hard
