What happens when we die? You really cannot say,

D B A
but Iâ€™m sure we ll find out someday.

The cameras focus in on the bleeding and ablaze
and I ve got my doubts that this will change.

We re suckers for entertainment, oh yeah we just want the truth.
If you don t give it, we re going to take it. Cause that s just the way we work.

You re afraid of the dark, afraid of the dark.

G A D
And you know as well as I know, you re afraid.

Now those bones are breaking down, and you cannot escape
the truth we all have to face.

And you re being lowered in to your new home,
and everyone s watching you go down.

Cause we re suckers for entertainment, oh yeah we just want the dirt.
And if you don t give it, we re going to take it. Cause that s just the way we work.

You re afraid of the dark, afraid of the dark.
And you know as well as I know, you re afraid.

Those wolves are coming to town,
and our houses are made of straw.
And oh yeah, they re going to huff, they re going to puff.
They re going to blow the whole damn thing down.

We re afraid of the dark, afraid of the dark.
And you know as well as I know, we re afraid.
