

Jet Pack Blues
Fall Out Boy

Em

I got those jet pack blues

Em

Just like Judy

C

G

The kind that makes June feel like September

G

I m the last one that you ll ever remember

Em

And I m trying to find that peace of mind

C

G

Behind these two white highway lines

G

When the city goes silent

G

The ringing in my ears gets violent

Em

C

G

She s in a long black coat tonight

Em

C

G

Waiting for me in the downpour outside

Em

C

G

She s singing Baby come home in a melody of tears

Em

C

G

While the rhythm of the rain keeps time

C

And I remember Baby, come home

D

Em

G

I remember Baby, come home

C

I remember Baby, come home

D

Em

G

I remember Baby, come home

C

Did you ever love her? Do you know?

D

Em

G

Or did you never want to be alone?

C

And she was singing Baby, come home

D

Em

G

I remember Baby, come home

Em

I ve got those jet pack blues

Em C G
Fight off the light tonight and just stay with me
G
Honey, don t you leave

Em
Don t you remember how we used to split a drink?

Em
It never mattered what it was

C G
I think our hands were just that close
G
The sweetness never lasted, no

Em C G
She s in a long black coat tonight
Em C G
Waiting for me in the downpour outside
Em C G
She s singing Baby come home in a melody of tears
Em C G
While the rhythm of the rain keeps time

C
And I remember Baby, come home

D Em G
I remember Baby, come home

C
I remember Baby, come home

D Em G
I remember Baby, come home

C
Did you ever love her? Do you know?
D Em G
Or did you never want to be alone?

C
And she was singing Baby, come home

D Em G
I remember Baby, come home

(Em) 2x
(C)
(G) 2x

Em C G
She s in a long black coat tonight
Em C G
Waiting for me in the downpour outside
