Verse 1:

G                   C                   G

My song isn't sung by angels

C                   G

Isn't played in chambers

D

Or hallways

G                   C                   G

My sound is an anxious tapping

C                   G

It's a restless moving

D                   C2                   G

Always, always, always

Verse 2:

G                   C                   G

My place isn't in this building

C                   G

There (are) no golden ceilings

D

That stand tall

G                   C                   G

My place is a dream that's failing

C                   G

It is broken (and) waiting

D                   C2                   G

to fall, to fall, to fall

Chorus:

G                   G

Oh, Lord Jesus

C

I m still trying

Wait for me

G G

Stay today

C

And I ll run tomorrow

C

(But I know You) wait for me (3x)
