

Endings

Familiar 48

Endings - Familiar 48

Tabbed by: bramsburg07
Email: stretch8899@yahoo.com

Tuning: Standard

Intro: Dsus, C then this is played every other time after C throughtout the song...

```
e|-----0-----|
B|-----1-----|
G|-----0-----0-----|
D|-----2-----|
A|-----3-----|
E|-----|
```

Dsus C Dsus C
Reoccurring feelings tell me I m wrong

Dsus C
Nothing worse than believing

Dsus C
It s easier to just move on

Dsus C Dsus C
Surrounding nothing with arms that needed so much more

Dsus C
And still there is something

Dsus C
That both of us are searching for

G Asus2 C
Well, I wish you knew

C G Asus2 C
But there is nothing we can do

C G
You don t have to try to explain

D Dsus D

We already know that we've changed

Am C

We just grew apart there's no blame, no blame for us ending

C G

You don't have to try to explain

D Dsus D

We already know that we've changed

Am C

We just grew apart there's no blame, no blame for us ending this way

Dsus C Dsus C

Nothing worse than pretending that we don't see that the end is here

Dsus C

This is all worth remembering

Dsus C

But living it is all too clear

G Asus2 C

Well, I wish you knew

C G Asus2 C

But there is nothing we can do

C G

You don't have to try to explain

D Dsus D

We already know that we've changed

Am C

We just grew apart there's no blame, no blame for us ending

C G

You don't have to try to explain

D Dsus D

We already know that we've changed

Am C

We just grew apart there's no blame, no blame for us ending this way

This is basically it. I couldn't figure out the solo or anything else but this is the part. It doesn't sound EXACTLY like it but I think it is pretty close. Let me know what think